Navigating the Procurement Process in Healthcare & the CareSource Vendor Diversity Program

Derrick S. Johnson
Strategic Sourcing Specialist
CareSource

Derrick has more than 22 years of experience in operations management, logistics, procurement, supplier diversity / vendor relationship management. His knowledge base comes from working in the areas of manufacturing and logistics, government and the nonprofit sector. Derrick's formal education comes from the Ohio State University and

Wright State University where he studied Economics and Engineering and received his Bachelors in 1995. He has also done graduate work at Ohio State and at the General Motors Institute of Technology. Derrick has earned certifications in Total Quality Management, Supplier Diversity, Supplier Management and Small Business Programs from GMI, The Federal Acquisitions Institute, the Defense Logistics Agency and APTAC.

In his current role Derrick manages the vendor diversity program, where he has built the program over the last several years by developing policies, procurement procedures and aligned the program with CareSource's core markets and product lines. The program has been incorporated into the RFP process and into all new business development initiatives. In addition to managing the vendor diversity program, Derrick also manages procurements supporting pillar programs, product lines and new business initiatives.
